From Our Principal Mr. Rucker:

Dear Holy Family School,

The month of December is upon us, which brings us to the wonderful season of Advent. The word advent comes from Latin and means "a coming, approach, arrival". In our church, the birth of Jesus is indeed coming and we should all be in preparation for this celebration. Advent also marks the coming of many different events around campus that we should all be aware of. As we prepare for these events, please keep in mind that we have had to make a lot of adjustments to the schedules that have previously been distributed, so these dates and times are important and should serve as the most up-to-date:

12/3 – 1st Trimester Awards Assembly for Grades 3-8, 2:00pm in Church

12/5 – Annual Crab Feed at Holy Family School

12/8 – All School Mass 8:30 – Immaculate Conception Holy Day

12/12 – Free Dress if you bring in your stocking

12/15 – All School Stocking Mass 8:30 (had to change due to Feast of OL of Guadalupe on 12/12)

12/18 – Christmas Program 6pm in Church

12/19 – Last Day of instruction before Christmas Break MINIMUM DAY DISMISSAL – NO AFTER SCHOOL EXTENSION

I am very hopeful that I will get to see a lot of parents over the next few weeks at these wonderful events. I am excited to be attending my first Holy Family Crab Feed this weekend, and I understand that there are a few seats still open...this is an event that you don't want to miss!!!

Josh Rucker, Principal
