As we get ready for Catholic Schools Week next week, it is exciting to share that I spent Friday afternoon meeting with the Admissions Departments from Jesuit, St. Francis and Christian Brothers High Schools to deliver and share the most recent crop of outstanding applicants from Holy Family Catholic School. The Admissions Directors from each school were very complimentary of our school and our parents, expressing that the students applying from Holy Family are always of the highest caliber and character. Thank you all for the tremendous partnership in educating our children.

This will be the final ask to invite all of your friends, neighbors, and prospective families to attend our Open House on Sunday immediately following the 8:30am Mass. As an added bonus, we are in the final stages of rolling out a formal referral incentive program - meaning if your hard work of referring your friends to our school results in an enrollment, you will be receiving some significant financial rewards! Stay tuned for the official rollout, and invite all you know to our campus on Sunday!

God Bless,
Josh Rucker
