Box Tops/Labels for Education News

Congratulations again to the 8th grade class who will be having a popcorn/movie party this Thursday. In addition, the students that turned in the most in their class with a minimum of 50 will receive a special treat after school on Halloween. Keep an eye out for passes to come home this week. Finally, the next competition is underway and will run through October 31st. Each student that turns in 50 or more Box Tops and/or Labels for Education points, collectively, will be awarded with a pizza party during lunch in November.
